How to identify a dangerous counterfeit bar code verifier

Unfortunately RJS continues to find counterfeit units

If you mistakenly purchase a knockoff bar code verifier it could cause a fire and could give you inaccurate bar code inspection results. Buying a counterfeit product means taking a gamble on your safety and opening your company to expensive fines and penalties.

Unfortunately, these days, it's not always easy to determine if you're getting the real thing. Some third-party agents knowingly list counterfeit units as genuine products, often at what seems to be a great price.

In order to help you determine if you received a counterfeit unit we have created the guide below. It is very easy to spot a counterfeit unit and return it for a refund.
